and will be one of the most charming events of Easter week.

Engagement Announced.

Mrs. John Bowers, Jr., announces the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Martha Ann, to Elyson Shirley Robinson, formerly of Richmond, but now a resident of Augusta, Ga. The wedding, which will be celebrated very quietly, will take place about the middle of April.

Studio Recital.

On Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock in Miss Effie Coker's studio, 203 East Franklin Street, two of her vocal pupils, Miss Florence Wood and Miss Floy Kratz, gave a very charming musical to a few of their friends. Miss Coker also sang several numbers.

The studio was prettily decorated in pink lilies and marguerites, with a bowl of pink flowers on the tea table.

Colonial Dames to Meet.

The monthly meeting of the Colonial Dames of America will be held at the Woman's Club on Tuesday, March 29, at 4:30 P. M. A full attendance is desired.

Meetings on Wednesday.

The Alumnae Association of Miss Virginia Randolph Ellett's School will meet on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the school building, 14 North Laurel Street. Every former student of the school is urged to be present.

St. John's Circle of the King's Daughters will meet on Wednesday, March 30, at half after 4 o'clock, instead of Monday afternoon. The meeting will be held in the parlors of the Sheltering Arms Hospital, 1008 East Clay Street, so that the members may see the room recently furnished by the circle.

Annual Trip to Jamestown.

The committee of arrangements for the annual excursion of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia

Antiquities to Jamestown—Mrs. P. J. White, Mrs. E. D. Hotchkiss, Miss Betty Ellyson and Miss Sally Anderson—have found it expedient to decide on Saturday, May 14, as the date for going down the river this year. Already many people in Richmond are looking forward to this May outing and a visit to the island where American history had its beginning.

At V. M. I.

Among the young women attending the Easter hops at the Virginia Military Institute in Lexington, will be Miss Marie Kolner and Miss Lucile Nelson, of this city. The hops will take place on Friday and Saturday nights of this week.

Excursion to Washington.

A most attractive excursion to Washington will be conducted by Mr. and Mrs. George A. Barksdale on April 14 for the Summer Rest. The capital city never looks more beautiful than in mid-spring, and another feature of the early Easter season will be that it will offer an opportunity for a number of the leading Richmond women to attend the annual convention of the American Woman's National Suffrage Association, which meets at that time in Washington.

Kasten-Schnaf.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Schaaf have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Louise Margaret, to Arthur Henry Kasten, the wedding to be celebrated at St. John's Evangelical Church on Tuesday evening, April 5, at half after 7 o'clock.

To Meet Wednesday Morning.

The Confederate Memorial Literary Society will meet in the Confederate Museum on Wednesday morning, March 30, at 11 o'clock. Members are asked to be present.

Guest of Miss Wingo.

Miss Nora Corbitt, of Wilmington,

N. C., who has been a student at the Georgetown Convent for the past session, will be the house guest of Miss Elizabeth Wingo for the Easter holidays at 904 Floyd Avenue.

Catarrh

Quickly Cured by a Pleasant Germ-Killing Antiseptic.

The little Hyomei (pronounced High-o-mey) inhaler is made of hard rubber, and can easily be carried in pocket or purse. It will last a lifetime.

Into this inhaler you pour a few drops of magical Hyomei.

This is absorbed by the antiseptic gauze within, and now you are ready to breathe it in over the germ infested membrane where it will speedily begin its work of killing catarrh germs. Hyomei is made of Australian eucalypt combined with other antiseptics, and is very pleasant to breathe.

It is guaranteed to cure catarrh, bronchitis, sore throat, croup, coughs and colds or money back. It cleans out stuffed up head in two minutes.

Sold by druggists everywhere and by the Tragle Drug Co. Complete outfit including inhaler and one bottle of Hyomei, $1.00. And remember that extra bottles if afterward needed cost only 50c. Send for free booklet and sample bottle of Hyomei. Booth's Hyomei Co., Buffalo, N. Y.
